

2017 D&R Greenway Public Walks

Second Weekends, March through December

Space is limited; please RSVP to rsvp@drgreenway.org or call 609-924-4646
Full walk descriptions and directions on our website, www.drgreenway.org

Spring Schedule

Sunday, March 12th, 4:30 - 6:30 pm: American Woodcock Breeding Display

Location: St. Michaels Farm Preserve (Aunt Molly Road), Hopewell Township

Leader: Emily Blackman, Land Protection Associate; Manager, Native Plant Nursery, D&RG

Sunday, April 9th, 10:00 am - Noon: Amwell Village History and Preserve Stewardship

Location: Omick Woods at Rocktown Preserve, East Amwell Township

Leaders: John Allen, East Amwell Historical Society; Toni Robbi, East Amwell Environmental Commission, D&RG volunteer

Saturday, May 13th, 1:00 - 3:00 pm: "World of Birds" Ornithology for Kids

Location: St. Michaels Farm Preserve (Barn), Hopewell Township

Leaders: Kim Kurki, "World of Birds" author; Leslie Potter, Director of Development, D&RG

Sunday, June 11th, 9:00 - 11:00 am: Early Summer Wildflowers and Birds

Location: Cedar Ridge Preserve, Hopewell Township

Leader: Jim Amon, D&RG Founder and Director of Stewardship Emeritus

American Woodcock

Trout Lily, a spring ephemeral wildflower

Penstemon, an early summer wildflower