

The Johnson Education Center in Princeton is closed to the public to help protect against the spread of Coronavirus

All indoor events canceled through April 5

But please take advantage of our land preserves to enjoy fresh air and promote physical fitness

D&R Greenway's outdoor preserves remain open, and a new monthly Walk with Friends is still scheduled to begin on May 3.

In response to the declared state of emergency in New Jersey related to the Coronavirus (COVID-19), and guidance from the CDC regarding the risk of infection at public gatherings, D&R Greenway Land Trust has closed the Johnson Education Center (JEC) in Princeton, NJ to the public, and all events are canceled through at least April 5, whether sponsored by D&R Greenway or our rental partners. D&R Greenway staff continue to work out of the JEC.

D&R Greenway President & CEO Linda Mead
has made the following statement:

"We know this represents a significant disappointment to the public, to our volunteers, artists, non-profit and business groups, and the many others who use the Johnson Education Center to make connections with each other and to appreciate our art exhibits. Unfortunately, this is a time when we must prioritize the protection of public health. In the meantime, we encourage people to take advantage of the many preserved lands and trails of D&R Greenway where you can connect with nature and maintain physical fitness. Our open spaces are open."

For more information about opportunities to visit our preserved lands, visit our website here.

Learn about our Walk with Friends program, beginning May 3, here.

Please monitor our website or contact the office for any last minute changes.