Enjoying the Outdoors Safely

In respect for public safety, D&R Greenway is monitoring best practices during the pandemic, and maintaining open trails with support from local communities.

We respectfully ask that you follow social distancing guidelines:
6'-10' distance between you and anyone outside of your household.

We recognize the importance of daily exercise and natural surroundings, especially now. You have told us you value walking on our trails for well-being. Our goal is to keep our open spaces and trails open and protect everyone.

THESE TRAILS ARE OPEN AND ACCESSIBLE:

In Hopewell and Pennington:

- ❑ St. Michaels Farm Preserve (all trails) from Princeton Avenue and Aunt Molly Road
- ❑ Cedar Ridge Preserve from Stony Brook and Van Dyke roads
- ❑ The Sourlands Ecosystem Preserve D&R Greenway trailheads on Mountain Road and Featherbed Lane
- ❑ Penn View Heights (from Kunkel Park) in Pennington
- ❑ Hopewell Connector Trail above Hopewell borough
- ❑ Woosamonsa Ridge Preserve – there is limited pedestrian access until Hopewell Township completes the parking area to be built on Woosamonsa Road; please do not park on private properties

In or very nearby Princeton:

- ❑ Greenway Meadows, Iron Mike Trail & Labyrinth, accessible from Rosedale Road and at the Johnson Education Center in Princeton
- ❑ The Charles Evans Children's Discovery Trail at the intersection of Drakes Corner and Province Line roads

A Few Comments from Our Open Space Enthusiasts who are Enjoying the Lands we have Permanently Preserved

"In appreciation of your keeping your sites open, I have just made my first donation to D&R Greenway. I live close to Greenway Meadows. It's a huge benefit to me and to the others I see there."

"Though I've moved from Pennington, NJ to Pennswood Village, Newtown, Pa, it has been important to me to continue to support the D&R Greenway! I have really enjoyed the recent emails featuring trails & preserves."

"By the way, terrific job with your "Open Space" email communications. I really look forward to them."

"Yesterday for the first time I went to the Cedar Ridge Preserve and parked in the Van Dyke parking lot-I was the only car there. The trails were very well marked and the maps on posts were a great idea - it gave me confidence that I wasn't going to get lost. This preserve amazed me with its diversity, the woods, the meadow, the Stony Brook-the trails were laid out in such a way that it was one surprise after another. It was such a glorious day that I didn't want to leave. During these tumultuous times one's head is spinning in so many directions and it's hard at times to keep grounded. I'm so happy that the preserves are open to give us all a "time out" from life. I haven't been so happy in such a long time - this preserve was the RX I needed and others as well."
